World-renowned humanitarian Jean Vanier has never written a memoir.

Our Life Together* is as close to a memoir of Vanier's remarkable life as may ever be published.

This collection of his letters spanning over four decades reflects upon his astonishing life and paints a candid portrait of a man who fully understands what it is to be a whole, compassionate human being.

Our Life Together* captures Vanier's travels around the world, his thoughts on and experiences in numerous world events such as 9/11 and the international movement of his founding organizations L'Arche and Faith and Light. It also reflects his interaction with faith leaders such as Mother Theresa, Pope John Paul II and Henri Nouwen and his own spiritual challenges and triumphs. Here is the gripping and inspirational story of a man with "a soul made to touch others."

"No one can read his words without feeling more implicated in the world's need for compassionate reality" —Adrienne Clarkson

"Jean Vanier changes your world. To meet him is a rare privilege. To read him is to know he already knows you" —Pamela Wallin

"Our Life Together" is 565 pages, and sells for CDN $32.95. The L'Arche Daybreak bookstore expects to have it this week (same price). pubs@larchedaybreak.com
